

21st Annual Kettle Range Rendezvous July 7-9

Make plans now to attend the 2023 Kettle Rendezvous camp & hike at Jungle Hill Campground, located one mile north of SR 20 of Albion Hill Road and east of Sherman Pass in the Kettle River Range. This annual celebration is suitable for all ages. Enjoy the company of friends and a chance to meet new ones. Relax, hike a favorite trail or a new one -- or just hang out at camp, hike on your own and enjoy good food and the company of outdoor enthusiasts.

RSVP – We always appreciate spur of the moment hikers – BUT – it would be helpful if you would let us know how many in your group are coming. You can do this by sending an email to tcoleman@kettlerange.org

RENDEZVOUS SCHEDULE

Friday, July 7 – Volunteer Project Day

- 1) Miscellaneous trail tread work, tree and brush clearing. Contact Tim tcoleman@kettlerange.org if you want to help.
- 2) Arrive and set up your camp & relax

Saturday, July 8 – Day Hikes – Please arrive no later than 10 AM

Arrive early and set up camp – enjoy a relaxing morning – get ready for day hikes

GUIDED HIKES OPTIONS*

Hikes will depart 10 AM from Jungle Hill Campground

- 1) Wapaloosie to Jungle Hill Trail: Difficulty 4, distance 8 miles.
- 2) Columbia Mountain Loop: Difficulty 3, distance 8 miles
- 3) Stickpin to Ryan's Cabin Trail: Difficulty 3, distance 6.4 miles
- 4) Sherman Peak Loop Trail: Difficulty 3, distance 6 miles
- 5) Hoodoo Canyon to Emerald Lake – Difficulty 3, Distance 4.5 miles r/t

All hikes are contingent a hike leader and a minimum of 4 hikers*

Saturday Dinner, Potluck, Music around the campfire – Complimentary barbecue (meat / vegie options) and water provided by KRCG. POTLUCK - please bring something to share – Please bring your cup, utensils, bowl or plate

Music Around the Campfire by Mark Rhodes

BYOB: bring your own beverages

Sunday, July 10 – Break camp, go for a hike (unguided), bon voyage!